They've all come to Paris. The Gauls, the Romans, Ernest Hemingway, F. Scott Fitzgerald, Pablo Picasso, Dwight Eisenhower, the Czar of Russia, Lenin, the Queen of England, Benjamin Franklin and George Gershwin. Some have even tried to capture the city. And now everyone wants to come to Paris -- millions of tourists each year, motivated by the desire to see the most beautiful city in the world. But Paris is more than a city. It is a place that breathes history and legend, a combination of the modern and the ancient

Day 3

Paris

(B,D)

Half-day guided tour of Paris historique, including Notre-Dame Cathedral, Arc de Triomphe, Eiffel Tower, Champs Elysees, Place de la Concorde, Luxembourg Palace and Gardens, Latin Quarter, Place de la Bastille, and other highlights

Performance as part of the American Celebration of Music in France

Day 4

Paris

(B,D)

For choirs only: Late morning performance in Notre Dame Cathedral

Enjoy an afternoon tour of Paris artistique, including entrance to the Louvre, the world's largest and greatest art museum

Day 5

Brussels

(B,D)

Transfer to Brussels. Upon arrival, take a guided tour of the highlights of Brussels, including the Grand Place (surrounded by the Hotel de Ville, Maison du Roi and Maisons des corporations), Manneken Pis, Atomium, Eglise Notre Dame, and entrance to the Musée Instrumental du Conservatoire de Musique

Brussels is the capital of Belgium, a royal residence, and the seat of the European Communities (EU, Euratom, ECSC) and of NATO. This very busy city incorporates a world of contrasts: (1) the linguistic contrast between the Walloon and Flemish communities (2) the contrast between urban Brussels and its grand avenues offering uncluttered views and leading to buildings of historic interest, and its mazes of little streets lined with gabled houses (3) the contrast between its immense parks and the modern districts with their tall tower blocks such as the World Trade Center (4) the contrast between the city's commercial function and its role as a cultural center. Brussels has an unusually active cultural life and is home to highly-acclaimed museums, a large number of theaters and other places of entertainment

Concert Tours With Integrity

---

Day 6 Brussels / Bruges (B,D)

---

Excursion of Bruges, one of the most beautiful medieval cities in Europe. The houses are built of brick, worn smooth by the passing years. There are also majestic buildings and churches. All of these huddle the banks of canals. It is a center of Flemish painting, art, and architecture. Less known than Brussels, the capital city, Bruges is a rival to Venice and Amsterdam in beauty, atmosphere, and great art treasures. Enjoy a canal ride for great views and an orientation to this unique city. Visit the Markt (Grand-Place), Belfort-Halieu (covered market), and the Basilica of the Holy Blood

Conduct an afternoon/evening concert in Bruges or Brussels

Day 7 Amsterdam (B,D)

---

Transfer to Amsterdam through Den Haag, the nation's governmental center. Continue on to Delft, stopping to visit one of its famous porcelain factories. Finally, arrive in Amsterdam.

Although Amsterdam is the capital of the Netherlands, it is not the seat of government. The town is built on the banks of the IJ and the Amstel. It is a port city of great character and charm, with its network of canals resembling a spider's web, its tall narrow brick houses with richly ornamented gables, its port, and its busy streets, numerous cultural events and museums

---

Day 8 Amsterdam (B,D)

---

Morning guided tour of Amsterdam includes the Begijnhof, the Bloemenmarkt (Flower Market), and entrance to the Anne Frank House.

Conduct an afternoon/evening concert in Amsterdam

---

Day 9 Amsterdam / Alkmaar (B,D)

---

Morning excursion to Alkmaar. The village of Alkmaar's chief tourist attraction is its cheese market, which is held, strictly in accordance with tradition, every Friday from mid-April to mid-September between 10am and noon in front of the Weigh-House in the Waagplein. The square is almost completely covered with large round cheeses (over 23 tons of Edam and Gouda cheese).

Return to Amsterdam for an afternoon tour of the Rijksmuseum (renowned for its Dutch Masters, particularly Rembrandt's "Night Watch")

Evening Farewell Dinner

Day 10 Depart for home (B)

---

Transfer to Amsterdam's International Schiphol Airport for return flight. Arrive home in the evening of the same day.

This is a very flexible itinerary. Except for confirmed appointments and performances, the places of interest and the sequence of sightseeing might be changed if necessary or desirable. In the event of an unavoidable conflict in the performance and the sightseeing schedule, the concert schedule will prevail, and it may be necessary to exclude some sightseeing activities.
