Concert Tours With Integrity

Berlin Dom

An Exclusive Concert Series

Germany has produced more music and greater composers than any country in Europe. Early influences included the Meistersingers who introduced polyphonic music and Martin Luther who helped church music develop an individual identity which gave rise to the German cantata and oratorio. From these 13th and 14th century beginnings, music developed in its highest forms under Bach, Handel, Gluck, Beethoven, von Weber, Brahms, Wagner, Mahler, Strauss and scores of other great composers.

Imagine your musicians performing in a venue associated with Mendelssohn, Luther, Bach, Handel, Brahms or Pachelbel! The musical experience is enhanced by other sensory experiences and the fact that Germany boasts incredible scenery, art, architecture, and a rich history. Berlin, Munich, Heidelberg, Rothenburg, Cologne, Leipzig, Dresden, Weimar and other major cities illustrate the diversity of experiences that await festival participants.

"This was, by far, my favorite tour in my career, bar none. The focus on music history was loved by the students, and I can't begin to tell you how many of them talked with me about how our visits to the various sites brought their understanding and appreciation of music history to a different place."

Steve Zielke, Director
Oregon State University Choir

Deb Perkins, Director
Texas Youth Orchestra & Choir

“We enjoyed singing in every venue. It was an embarrassment of riches as we sang in one stunning Baroque/Rococo church after another. The choir felt a warm reception from those in attendance and really felt fortunate to have the opportunity to perform in the selected churches and halls.”

Barlow Bradford, Director
Utah Chamber Artists of Sandy
