The Republic of Ireland consists of over 80% of the “Emerald Isle”. This lush green island is full of thatched cottages, pubs, music, wit and poetry. The relaxed good humor of the people make Ireland a most welcoming place to visit and perform. This is the homeland of literary giants such as James Joyce, George Bernard Shaw, Samuel Beckett, Jonathan Swift and Oscar Wilde. Whether you are listening to Gaelic love songs that date back to medieval times or 17th – and 18th-century folk songs with their English and Scottish influences, the music is unmistakably Irish. And dance is an equally important aspect of Irish culture.

Ireland is the only country in the world to have a musical instrument – the harp – as its national emblem. In this land, famous for its love of music, modern forms such as country & western and rock flourish, but it is the traditional music that captures the essence of the country.

Come to the land of St. Patrick to see Neolithic sites, kiss the Blarney Stone, listen for banshees, look for leprechauns, hear Gaelic spoken, and most of all, perform in historic settings to warm, appreciative audiences.

“Thank you MCI for a fantastic Ireland tour! The Youth Symphony of Kansas City Embarked on its' first international tour in over a decade with over 100 participants involved. Everything was planned and executed with absolute precision.”

Russ Pieken, Director
Youth Symphony of Kansas City

"Thanks so much for everything—we had a great experience! The performances were certainly special highlights. MCI is incredible. The smoothness of literally every step was so impressive. Everyone working on our behalf in Ireland was excellent, too."

Amy Gillingham, Director
Northern Kentucky University
Orchestra

"Our trip was as nearly perfect as it could have been. We had smooth on-time flights, fantastic tour guide and coach driver, excellent performances with over 200 people at three of them plus hundreds at the Prawn Festival (so much fun!), and beautiful sightseeing."

Dr. David Littrell, Director
Kansas State University Orchestras
