

American Celebration of Music in Canada

Montréal and Québec City, Québec

Standard Tour #3 (5 nights 6 days)

Day 1 Montréal

Arrive in Montréal

Upon arrival, meet your MCI Tour Manager, who will assist you to the hotel for check in and will answer any inquiries

Dinner at a local restaurant

Founded three and a half centuries ago, Montréal is the second largest French speaking city in the world. For visitors, Montréal's greatest attraction is its cosmopolitan, almost European atmosphere. The meeting of French and English cultures and the addition of other ethnic influences have created a unique blend. Its varied and vibrant neighbourhoods, such as Old Montréal with its picturesque cobbled streets and historic grey limestone buildings, or the "Latin Quarter" of St. Denis Street with its lively outdoor cafes, provide a refreshing, every-changing urban panorama.

Day 2 Montréal

Breakfast at the hotel

Guided tour of Montreal with a local English-speaking guide

Sightseeing highlights today include Old Montréal, Mont Royal, St. Joseph's Oratory, Notre Dame Basilica and McGill University

Possible performance or clinic as part of the American Celebration of Music in Canada

Take time for shopping in the afternoon

Dinner at le Festin du Gouverneur, which offers the Québec experience at its most engaging and rewarding. Join in the fun, festivities and Joie de Vivre while musicians, singers, and comedians entertain

Day 3 Montréal / Ottawa

Breakfast at the hotel

Today we depart on an excursion to Ottawa. From the lumber and rail centre of bygone days, Ottawa has blossomed into a modern capital which features an impressive array of public monuments, museums, galleries, and other attractions

Possible Performance as part of the American Celebration of Music in Canada

Sightseeing highlights today include Parliament Hill, residences of the Prime Minister and Governor General, the National Arts Centre, Museum of Civilization and the Byward Market

Mid-afternoon return back to Montréal

Dinner at a local restaurant

Music Celebrations International

Concert Tours With Integrity

Day 4 Montreal / Québec City (150 miles, 3 hours)

Breakfast at the hotel

Drive south and meet up with the mighty St. Lawrence River, which we follow along the scenic Chemin du Roy Highway. Pass numerous historical French-Canadian villages en route to Québec City, the only walled city in North America

Québec City or Québec (French: Ville de Québec, or simply Québec) is the capital of the Canadian province of Québec. It is the second largest city in the province, after Montréal. Québec's Old Town (Vieux-Québec), the only North American fortified city north of Mexico whose walls still exist, was declared a World Heritage Site by the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO) in 1985 as the "Historic District of Old Quebec". It is also one of the oldest cities in North America.

Upon arrival, check-in to the hotel Royal William, or similar

Lunch, on own

Afternoon guided tour of Québec City's La Citadelle. This national historic site is a walled fortress of the city. Also visit the Royal 22 Regiment Museum. Then wander Dufferin Terrace and view le Chateau Frontenac

Dinner at a local restaurant

Possible performance or clinic as part of the American Celebration of Music in Canada

Day 5 Québec City

Breakfast at the hotel

Enjoy a full day sightseeing tour of Québec City with a local English-speaking guide. Take a tour within the walls of the Old City, visit Lower Town and Battlefields Park before continuing along the Beaupre Coast. The village of Sainte-Anne houses one of the country's most beautiful cathedrals. Stops are made to view the lovely Montmorency Falls and a typical Québec bake oven

Dinner will be at Ile d'Orleans at a typical French Sugar Shack.

Day 6 Depart for home
