An Exclusive Concert Series

Polish Radio Music Studio

Poland, about the size of New Mexico, has been one of the fastest countries to rebound from the many years of Soviet domination during the Cold War. Visitors are speechless when they step into Krakow's vibrant main square or Warsaw's colorful Old Town. Poland has some breathtaking medieval towns that show off its warm and welcoming people, dynamic history, and striding-into-the-future optimism.

Poland is known for producing some of the world's great intellectuals, humanists, and musicians. These include Karol Wojtyła (the late and great Pope John Paul II), composers Fryderyk Chopin, Krzysztof Penderecki, and Henryk Górecki, and the scientist Marie Curie (nee Skłodowska), to name a few.

Poland is historically pro-American. Of course, their big neighbors (Russia and Germany) have been their historic enemies. In 1989, when Poland finally won its freedom, many Poles only half-joked that they should apply to become the 51st state of the United States!

Imagine your group performing in St. Mary's Cathedral on Krakow's main square or perhaps in the cathedral in Wawel Castle. In Wrocław (formerly the German city of Breslau) or in Poznań, many churches, cathedrals and concert halls await visiting ensembles!

"Poland is a beautiful country with beautiful people. I was delighted by those who heard our concerts and were so appreciative. I was also touched by our visit to Auschwitz concentration camp. It is humbling to imagine the vastness of suffering that occurred in that place. I will also never forget our tour of the salt mine and singing in a cathedral made of salt!"

Alan Heatherington, Director
Chicago Master Singers

"St. Katherine's Church in Krakow was an incredible venue with acoustics that sent chills through our musicians and fueled the passion for an awesome performance. The Poles were amazed at the talent before them, so contrary to what most think about Las Vegas! Thanks to MCI the concert was standing room only. The students were honored to have a standing ovation & gladly gave the audience an encore! Truly a memorable & wonderful tour."

Bev Patton, Executive Director
Las Vegas Youth Orchestra

"It was my 11th European Tour of my career and was the best. During our tour we sang 6 concerts. The venues were outstanding as well as the audiences. It was a thrill to sing at the anniversary celebration of Pope John Paul II's ordination in Wadowice. The Cathedral was so packed the choir could not sit down."

Loren Squires, Director
South Metro Chorale
